

EMAF Porto 2018 is the International Exhibition of Machine Tools and Accessories. The show will be held on 21-24 Nov 2018 in Porto, Portugal. The most diverse industrial areas are present in this event of international reference, from machine tools, industrial maintenance and robotics, to automation instrumentation, industrial control and applied informatics, and others. More and more exhibitors of the show will exhibit their latest and advanced products and services such as machine tools, industrial maintenance, foundry, industrial cleaning, logistics and transport, chemistry and laboratories, moulds, plastic and rubbers instrumentation, automation and control, robotics and computer science applied to the industry, metallurgy and metal products, security products, services and equipment, quality, subcontracting.